

The Savannah Station Board of Directors

Tomas Manske
Chairman

Rancher and Professional Auctioneer, lives in Yukon

Manske grew up on a farm and ranch in northwest Oklahoma raising cattle and cereal grain crops and helping with the family auction business. After college, he began a career in different levels of education, from teaching high school and as a 4-H youth educator to serving in leadership roles in non-profit youth organizations. Manske has spent 24 years with the Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service.

He also has experience working with volunteers, foundations and other non-profit organizations and enjoys incorporating technology to streamline processes and outcomes. Manske currently works as the Agricultural Technology Specialist for the NASNTI Grant at Redlands Community College and was recently elected as the next Canadian County District 1 Commissioner.

Jeff Sullins
Vice Chairman

Vice President of Compliance & Risk, WEOKIE Federal Credit Union, lives in Oklahoma City

Sullins has served on the board of Savannah Station on and off since it was formed in 2013. He is currently serving in his second term as vice chairman. He represents participating families on the board as his daughter, Lindsey, is a participant in the program. Sullins has been employed with WEOKIE Federal Credit Union since 1995. He also volunteers a great deal of his time to Special Olympics Oklahoma.

The Savannah Station Board of Directors consists of nine dedicated volunteers from all walks of life focused on making a difference. Pictured from left, Tomas Manske, Niki Fanning, Julie Huber, Nikki Henley, Sandi Tyler, Jeff Sullins, Scott Hamilton and Athena Captain. Michelle Shaw is not pictured. (Photo provided)

Niki Fanning
Secretary

Bohannon Insurance professional and business owner, lives in Yukon

Fanning is a native to the Yukon community and she firmly believes in giving back to the places that she cherishes. She is a local business owner, works for a local insurance company and has children that are very active in the community.

Fanning grew up around horses and her middle daughter shares that passion and also volunteers at Savannah Station. For the Fanning family, Savannah Station fits with their passions and is a great way to give back to the community.

Nikki Henley
Treasurer

Controller and Corporate Secretary, Hall Capital LLC, lives in El Reno

Henley joined the Savannah Station board in 2022. She is a CPA and was honored as an Oklahoma Society of CPAs Trailblazer Award winner in 2022. She and her husband Adam have one son, Jace. Henley's favorite things are spending time with her family, fishing and all things OSU.

Athena Captain
Member

Founder/ CEO of Athena Captain Coaching

Captain has successfully led sales teams for over 20 years, experience she uses to help others through her speaking and coaching business. Director of Sales and business partner at Turner & Son Homes, her drive has led to her being named a Prosperity Bank's Women of the Year Finalist in 2014 and one of the Top 50 Women Making a Difference in 2020. Within the community, Captain is a co-Founder of Savannah Station Therapeutic Riding Program, in honor of her daughter Savannah, and is a board member of Oklahoma Family Network.

Scott Hamilton
Member

Independent Contractor, lives in Yukon

Hamilton is an independent contractor working in residential construction, handling marketing, sales and estimating for fire and water loss claims.

Hamilton previously owned an Insurance agency in Bethany for 17 years. Hamilton and his wife Sonya have been married 39 years. They have four adult children and four grandkids. Hamilton enjoys painting, playing guitar and collecting classic rock vinyl records.

Julie Huber
Member

El Reno Public School District, lives in El Reno

Huber has been in education 27 years. She oversees the El Reno Public School District's federal programs and will be the new chief financial officer beginning with the 2022-23 school year. She has been a member of the El Reno Wranglers for 25 years. She is married to Craig Huber and they have two daughters, Catherine and Caroline. She enjoys spending time with her family and riding her horse.

Michelle Shaw
Member

Office Manager, Canadian County Water Authority, lives in Yukon

Shaw has been active in business and the community for many years, serving on the Patriot Project Fundraising Committee of Southwest Covenant School for nine years.

Sandra Tyler
Member

Licensed Professional Counselor, Burke Haven Group, lives in Oklahoma City